

Public Meeting Comment Form

Draft Floodplain Ordinance

The Santa Cruz County Flood Control District (District), along with the Floodplain Ordinance Review and Advisory Committee (Committee), is proposing to make changes to the existing Santa Cruz County Floodplain and Erosion Hazard Management Ordinance #2001-03. Purpose of these changes are to keep the Ordinance in line with the requirements of the Federal Emergency Management Agency, National Flood Insurance Program, Community Rating System Program, and the State of Arizona. Additional changes were added by the Committee and the District to help increase the benefits of the Ordinance to the Community. The District is seeking your input to move the proposed Ordinance forward. Please take a few minutes to answer the questions below and submit this form tonight, or send it to our office at 275 Rio Rico Drive, Rio Rico, Arizona, 84548, Attn. John Hays, or by email at jhays@santacruzcountyaz.gov, during the Public Review and Comment Period (ending May 29, 2014).

Which best describes your primary interest in this Ordinance? (Check all that apply)

Concerned Citizen _____ Affected Resident _____ Affected Property Owner _____ Affected Business Owner _____

Do you have any issues and/or concerns about the proposed changes presented here tonight? _____

Do you have any comments regarding the proposed changes presented here tonight? _____

Additional Comment (or Continued from Above) _____

Would you like to be contacted to discuss what, if any, impacts these proposed changes would have on your property?

Yes _____ No _____

If Yes, Name _____

Address _____

Email _____